

Angels Open 12 Game Home Stand

Lopez Brings in White Sox for Three Game Set

The Los Angeles Angels—who have been playing thrilling, heart-stopping baseball—open a 12-game home stand at comfortable Wrigley Field against the Chicago White Sox tonight.

The Angels, playing the most exciting baseball in the league, take on the White Sox, led by manager Al Lopez, in a three-game series which is climaxed by the season's first two-night doubleheader on Friday, May 18, starting at 6 p.m.

Angel manager Bill Rigney will have his surprising pitching staff ready to face the Chicago White Sox, rated a pre-season pennant favorite by most of the experts. Chicago, known as the Go-Go Sox because of their tremendous team speed, are led afield by Minnie Minoso, one of the American League's most exciting players, shortstop Luis Aparicio and second baseman Nellie Fox. Early Wynn, a veteran of the A.L., heads the pitching staff which includes southpaw Herb Score and bullpen ace Gerry Staley.

After a day off on Saturday, May 20th, the Angels resume action against the American League's "other" new club, the Washington Senators. The new Nats, like the Angels, have surprised the critics with their fine play. They boast a fine pitching staff headed by veteran Dick Donovan, Benjie Daniels (a Compton, Calif. righthander who formerly pitched for the Hollywood Stars), and rookie sensations Joe McClain and Ed Hobaugh. Another couple of former Hollywood Stars are first baseman R. C. Stevens and Dale Long.

The Angels play the Senators on Sunday, May 21st in a doubleheader starting at 1:30 p.m. and a single night game on Monday, May 22. This archlighter will be preceded by the Press-Radio-TV game, a hilarious pre-game highlight of the old PCL Angels.

The tough Cleveland Indians, with cigar-smoking Jimmy Dykes at the helm, come to Wrigley Field for two night games a Ladies Day game on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday (May 23, 24, 25). Jimmy Piersall, the controversial, excitable and colorful centerfielder of the Indians, is expected to catch the fans' eyes during this series.

Ladies Day—the first one this season—will be observed on Thursday, May 25 when the Angels play a mid-week afternoon game.

The 12-game home stand comes to an end with three big games against the leading Detroit Tigers, under their new manager Bob Scheffing, the former pilot of the PCL Angels. Scheffing has his Bengals battling with the New York Yankees for the lead and they've been playing outstanding baseball.

In Rock Colavito, Billy Brunton and Al Kaline, the Tigers have perhaps the best outfield in baseball. They can all hit, run and throw.

Detroit has been sparked in the early going by catcher Dick Brown, and rookie infielders Jake Wood (second base) and Steve Boros (third base).

This home stand completes the first visit of every other American League club to Los Angeles. The Angels then hit the road for their second lengthy road trip.

The Angels box office at Wrigley Field is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Tickets also can be purchased at the 71 Mutual Ticket Agencies in Los Angeles and throughout Southern California.

St. John struck out 17 men. Earlier in the week, the Roans downed the Wranglers 9-7 with Greg Reddicks homering for the losers.

Pintos kept their unbeaten record intact as they defeated the Mustangs 5-2 on a three hitter by Ken Phau and also ralled over the Wranglers 8-2 on another three hitter by Bill Desmond. A home run by Mike Montgomery in the first with one on put the Pintos in front to stay. Colt batters fattened their averages by taking a pair from Broncos 13-4 and the Mustangs 18-4. In the second contest, Tom Zuper homered.
